

John Malin

John Malin has been working with The Malin Group, Inc. and its associated businesses since 2001. Prior to that time he spent 13 years as a general contractor working in northern New Jersey and then in Melbourne, Australia, where he founded and operated residential contracting and property maintenance businesses. Prior to that time, he set up and managed two US companies for Australian owners.

John brings project management experience, along with marketing and financial management skills to the group. He has extensive experience managing people and the multi-level needs of the real estate companies. He has been the chief financial officer for the companies over the past four years.

John spent the past four years working with the Mathews Bluff Ltd partners where he held the position of Chief Operating Office and handled financial and project management. His background in general contracting as well as business management created a strong advantage to the business venture and the many needs of the development. Recently, he has assisted the Big Sky Partnership overseeing property improvements with Denton County.

John has an MBA degree from Melbourne University in Marketing and Business Administration. He is a graduate of Hobart and William Smith College where he minored in architecture.
